New Direction for the Former Stamp Out Tobacco Coalition

Tobacco-Free Community Partners, formerly Stamp Out Tobacco Coalition, have a new name and Community Coordinator.

Julie Krawczyk of Bennington has been hired to work collaboratively with the Tobacco-Free Community Partners on tobacco prevention initiatives and will manage the Tobacco Use Prevention and Control Program Community Grant for the Bennington Area.

Krawczyk's experience with grant oversight and program development will be an asset as the Tobacco-Free Community Partners look to expand education and prevention efforts locally.

Tobacco-Free Community Partners is an education, resource, prevention, and connection network whose mission is to prevent first time tobacco use among youth and reduce its use across all ages in the Bennington Area. To learn more about the Tobacco-Free Community Partners, contact Julie Krawczyk at (802) 447-6478 or view the Web site at www.tobaccofreebennington.org.
